CorCell offers the option to automatically pay your child's annual storage fee each year per the following:

- All storage fees under your account must be paid via credit card information as provided below
- Annual storage fees will be automatically charged to the card below for as long as it remains current
- The first charge will take place upon receipt of this agreement for any outstanding storage fee invoice, or upon the due date of your next annual storage fee invoice if no invoice is currently due
- For each annual storage fee due, you will receive a reminder of your Automatic Payment 30 days prior to your child's birthday
- Annual storage fees are due on your child's birthday each year
- This agreement will become void if payment is declined for whatever reason or when the credit card expires if an alternate card is not provided
- Late fees may apply to accounts that are past due, should funds be unavailable on the storage fee invoice due date

Credit card charge authorization: I hereby authorize CorCell to charge the selected card below in accordance with the plan selected above, and apply said charge toward payment of the storage fee charges I owe CorCell. I understand that I will remain responsible for recurring charges, additional late fees and other applicable charges if payment is declined by the credit card below. I authorize CorCell to charge the annual storage fee per my signed Payment Agreement on my child's birthday each year to the following credit card:
